

Martin vs. Bowie

April 9, 2009

What a way to start any game!! Jay Hiller hits the plate as Martin's first batter and hits a screamin' homerun on the first pitch of the game. Trevor Slocum starts the second inning with a double, followed by a single from Kyle Blackwell. Daniel Garcia is up next and hits a nice shot over the fence, bringing in Slocum and Blackwell with him. The third inning has Blackwell reaching with a single, stealing 2nd, reaching 3rd on a Bowie throwing error, and stealing home on a wild pitch. Garcia and Trey Kensing are up next with both hitting doubles, and Garcia scoring on Kensing's double. No runs were scored in the fourth or fifth innings. Trey Thompson starts the sixth inning with a single, with Jay Hiller laying down a nice successful bunt, moving Thompson to 2nd. With runners at 1st and 2nd, Ryan Walker lays down a good bunt but unfortunately the Bowie defense gets Thompson headed to 3rd, moving Hiller to 2nd and Walker takes 1st. As Brian Ragira is up to bat, Hiller steals 3rd and Walker steals 2nd. Ragira reaches on a Bowie error, scoring Hiller and moving Walker to 3rd and stealing home on a Bowie error by the catcher. Slocum is up next with a double but is left stranded.
