

Martin vs. Midland Christian
 March 12, 2009

With a definite chill in the air, the Martin bats were hot in our first game of the Lubbock tournament against Midland Christian. With a total of 4 runs scored in the 1st inning, there was a single by Chase Jensen, and doubles by Ryan Walker, Brian Ragira, and Trey Thompson. Jay Hiller started the 2nd inning with a single, and reaching second on a balk by the Midland pitcher. Jensen steps up to the plate with a single scoring Hiller, followed by a single from Ragira, moving Jensen to 2nd. With Jensen stealing 3rd and Ragira stealing 2nd, Kyle Blackwell is up with runners in scoring position. Blackwell hits a sacrifice fly to deep center field scoring Jensen from third on the tag up. The 3rd inning caught Martin three up, three down. Walker and Ragira reached in the 4th with singles, Jensen reached on a Midland error, Blackwell reaching on a fielder's choice, and Trey Thompson reached with a walk. Two runs were scored in the 4th. Hiller, Walker and Jensen all reached base on singles, with two runs scoring on Jensen's single. Two runs were also scored in the 6th with Keith Carney reaching on a Midland error, and singles by Trent Hunter, Trey Kensing, Tanner Hapeman, and Jay Hiller. Tony Rizzotti had an outstanding game on the mound, holding Midland Christian to two runs, and 5 hits. He had seven strikeouts and no walks.
